

“Ending Violence Against Women: Men Standing Up!”

The Metro Interagency Committee on Family Violence invites you to the annual Family Violence Prevention Week event to hear from a keynote speaker and panelists discussing the importance of having male role models stand up in opposition to violence against women.

“There is so much going on in the world that it's important to take a stand where you can. That's why we're doing something here...” Amelia Awalt (keynote)

Friday, February 15, 2008
9:30 AM – 1 PM Doors open at 9:00 AM

Free Admission, Free Parking & Free Healthy Snack. Registration is required to attend this event. Please register before February 12, 2008 by contacting 427-7788

Located at the Halifax Military Family Resource Centre, Windsor Park, Building 106 (off Windsor St, beside Canex, between WP Curling Club & Auto Club)

There will be opportunity for agencies to showcase their work in family violence prevention. There are a limited number of tables available at $15. To book: contact Aileen Whitehead at 427-7783